

You have the choice to donate 2% of your next exam grade to the group. If you do, everyone in class today (including yourself) will have 0.50% contributed to their next exam.

Prior to making your choice, feel free to discuss this with your classmates (class discussion is encouraged).

For every person in the class who contributes, 0.50% will be added to your exam. (This is regardless of whether you contribute or do not contribute.)
